Please answer the following questions thoughtfully and in complete sentences:

1. As a student, what are your strengths?

2. As a student, what are some areas where you could use some improvement?

3. Which subjects do you do your best work in? Why?

4. How much time do you spend studying and doing your homework?

5. Do you feel you are self-disciplined? In other words, do you do your school work without someone having to remind you? Explain and give some specific examples.

6. Do you want to go to college/university? Why?

7. Do your parents want you to go to college? Why?

8. What questions do you have about the A.V.I.D. Program?

The A.V.I.D. Program targets those students who are members of an under-represented group (under-represented means that people in these groups aren't seen going to four-year universities in very large numbers). Check the groups below that you believe apply to you:

___ I will be the first in my family to go to college

___ I am African-American or a combination of ethnicities including African American

___ I am Latino/a or combination of ethnicities including Latino/a

___ I am a Native American or a combination of ethnicities including Native American

___ I am not a member of an underrepresented group, but I have a special circumstance and would like to be considered for the A.V.I.D. Program because
