

TRESPASS REGULATION

1. The Board of Trustees encourages declares that the purpose of this policy is to safeguard the teachers, other employees, students, and property of district schools. The Board recognizes the right to visit school grounds for legitimate purposes, and does not intend by this policy to interfere with the exercise of that right.
2. No outsider shall enter or remain on school grounds during school hours without having registered with the principal or designee, except to proceed expeditiously to the office of the principal or designee for the purpose of registering. If signs restrict the entrance or route that outsiders may use to reach the office of the principal or designee, an outsider shall comply with such signs. In order to register, an outsider shall, upon request, furnish the principal or designee with the following:
 - a. His or her name, address, and occupation.
 - b. His or her age, if less than 21.
 - c. His or her purpose in entering school grounds.
 - d. Proof of identity.
 - e. Other information consistent with other provisions of the law.

No person who furnishes the information and the proof of identity required by this section shall be refused registration except as provided below:

- a. The principal or designee may refuse to register an outsider if he or she has as reasonable basis for concluding that the outsider's presence on school grounds would create an imminent threat of physical injury to teachers, employees, or students of the school.
- b. A principal, designee, or school campus supervisor may revoke an outsider's registration if he or she has a reasonable basis for concluding that the outsider's presence on school grounds creates an imminent threat of physical injury to teachers, other employees, or students of the school. The principal, designee, or campus supervisor shall give the outsider written notice of the reason for the revocation and the right to a hearing on the revocation; but no revocation shall be invalid for failure to give such notice or because of a defect in such notice.
- c. An outsider who is denied registration or whose registration is revoked shall leave school grounds promptly.

Any person who is denied registration or whose registration is revoked may request a hearing before the Superintendent or principal on the propriety of the denial or revocation. The request shall be in writing, shall state why the denial or revocation was improper, shall give the address to which notice of hearing is to be sent, and shall be delivered to either the Superintendent or the principal within five days after the denial or revocation. The Superintendent or principal shall promptly mail a written notice of the date, time, and place of the hearing to the person who requested the hearing. A hearing before the principal shall be held within seven days after the principal receives the request. A hearing before the Superintendent shall be held within seven days after the Superintendent receives the request. At each entrance to the school grounds of every district school, signs shall be posted specifying the hours during which registration is required, stating where the office of the principal or designee is located and what route to take to that office, and the penalties for violation of this policy. Every outsider who willfully and knowingly violates this policy is guilty of an infraction and is subject to a fine of not less than twenty dollars ($20) nor more than fifty dollars ($50). Every outsider who willfully and knowingly violates this policy after having been previously convicted is guilty of a misdemeanor and is subject to the following punishment under State law.

- 1) Upon conviction of a violation committed within seven years of the date of two or more prior violations that resulted in conviction, by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than 10 days nor more than six months, or by both such imprisonment and a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500).
 - 2) In any other case, by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500), by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.
3. The building principal may exempt individual outsiders from the operation of this policy, but any such exemption shall be in writing which is signed and dated by the principal and which specifies the person or persons exempted, and the date on which the exemption will expire.

Principals may exempt designated portions of school grounds from the operation of this policy during some or all school hours.

A person whose presence or conduct on school grounds violates another provision of law may be punished for that violation, regardless of whether he or she was registered pursuant to this policy at the time of the violation.
