

PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES ON SCHOOL PROPERTY

Pursuant to Penal Code Section 626.8 and the Education Code, the activities listed below are prohibited on school property of the San Dieguito Union High School District and deemed to be not "lawful business":

1. Encouraging pupils to disobey or otherwise disregard the policies of the Board of Trustees, the administrative regulations of the district, or direction of members of the certificated staff of the school, or the ordinances of the County of San Diego, or the laws of the State of California.
2. Participating in any activity on the school grounds which is determined by the chief administrative official of the school, or his designated agent, to be an interference with the peaceful conduct of the activities of the school or its pupils or as reasonably probable to lead to such interference or disruption.
