

ORGANIZATIONS: CABINETS, COUNCILS, COMMITTEES*STUDENT BODY ORGANIZATIONS

A student body organization under the direction of the principal is authorized at each school. The school staff shall assist students in drafting and implementing a constitution for the Associated Student body whereby students shall have designated duties, powers and authority consistent with the general policies of the Board and due process.

The constitution of the Associated Student Body must be approved by the Board and be on file at the district office. The constitution of the Associated Student Body shall provide for student body representation through an elected council which will allow students to operate at the school level in ways consistent with the purposes, powers and limitations of the adopted constitution.

The administration is authorized to develop operational procedures for the orderly functioning of all student body organizations on campus.
