ANNUAL Residency Verification Affidavit

The San Dieguito Union High School District will ONLY enroll students whose parent/guardian resides within the District boundary (Education Code 48204). In situations where residency is in question, the District or school will investigate by making a home visit. Residency verification is an annual parent responsibility. Falsification of information provided on this form will be grounds for immediate disenrollment.

Complete and sign this affidavit, attach copies of documents listed in Category 1 and Category 2 of the Acceptable Residency Verification Documents Chart listed below and return to the school's Registrar Office.

I have read the District residency verification policy. I understand students are required to prove residency during their initial enrollment and annually thereafter. I understand students will not be enrolled without at least two (2) separate documents to verify residency; one from Category 1 and one from Category 2 as outlined in the Acceptable Residency Verification Documents Chart listed above. I understand documents must be current and include the parent/guardian name and home address. I declare under the penalty of perjury that the above residency information is true and correct and that documents have not been altered; except blacked out confidential and personal details within a specific document if necessary. I agree to notify the school within (5) days of changing residency status of myself and/or my child and will provide new proof of residency or withdraw my child if the change is outside of the SDUHSD boundary.
