10. SCHOOL UPDATES

A. SUNSET HIGH SCHOOL RICK AYALA, PRINCIPAL

Principal Ayala shared highlights and events from Sunset High School (SS) and the reasons students voluntarily attend SS which include credit acceleration, credit recovery, and for the small learning environment. Students receive individualized attention, develop a plan based on their needs, and are empowered to take charge of their learning. More students have graduated over the past 8 years, and last year 100% planned to attend further education. The 3-year average API score was 669 which is the highest continuation school in the county, and met target growth every year. The Healthy Kids Survey results show 98% feel safe in school. A Western Association of Schools and Colleges accreditation visit was conducted in 2014-15 which identified Sunset as a model school with close connections, and a 6-year accreditation was given. Mr. Ayala recognized his staff for their hard work and stated “Sunset rocks”.

PUBLIC COMMENTS – Comments were made in support of Sunset HS by Ted Wheeler, Craig Williams, a SS math teacher, and Doug Dahl, a parent of a Sunset student.

Student Board Rep Mikenzie Bub shared her experiences attending Sunset and how much it has helped and supported her.

B. SPECIAL EDUCATION UPDATE CHARLES ADAMS, DIRECTOR OF SPECIAL EDUCATION

Mr. Adams gave an update on the Special Education department and programs including participation in the school site facilities planning for special education programs, the Adult Transition Program currently housed at EWMS, academic instruction in English Language Arts, a basic academic skills class offered at MiraCosta College and the continued focus on meaningful and calculated work experience. Increasing Special Education parent involvement continues with parent forums being offered, distribution of parent newsletters, more parent involvement and engagement is occurring at school sites, and transition meetings are held for parents for students in grades 6 to 7, 8 to 9, and 12 to the adult program. Continued work on strengthening the support of the IEP process is ongoing and a teacher task force is reviewing current programs in order to standardize across the district. Mr. Adams also reported that mental health services are being reviewed and updated in order to support student wellness and connectedness.
