

SDUHSD Special Education Vision Statement

The San Dieguito Union High School District provides a full continuum of supports and services to each and every student in Special Education so each student is prepared and able to achieve a level of competence, self-reliance, disability awareness and independence, based on their own unique abilities, so each transitions successfully to their future.