

PART-TIME TEACHERS

Persons may be employed in regular teaching positions for less than a full-time assignment. Part-time is defined as a less than full day teaching assignment or a full day teaching assignment for less than a full year. Persons employed for less than a full day will be remunerated on a basis of one-fifth of a full time salary for each period of teaching assignment.

Part-time certificated employees will be expected to attend faculty and department meetings as well as to meet other professional responsibilities required of full-time employees. Supervisory duties will be assigned on a proportional basis. Regular full day employees hired for a semester or more shall be entitled to full benefits for the duration of the assignment.
